

Topic: Garrett Morgan - Inventor

What I should already know	Key Dates	Vocabulary
That there are different types of transport.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Garrett Morgan was born on March 4th 1877. He died on July 27th 1963. Three-way traffic signal was invented by him in 1923. 	inventor	A person who invented a particular something or who invents things as a n occupation
Significant Individuals	Key Knowledge	traffic signal	A device used to give instructions to traffic Garrett Morgan – An American inventor 	Garrett Morgan was an American inventor. He invented a breathing device, an improved sewing machine and a 3-way traffic signal (others things also). Garrett Morgan worked as a sewing machine engineer. He was interested in how they worked, and this led to his invention of an improved sewing machine.   After seeing a collision, he invented a traffic signal , in 1923. It had stop, go and stop in all directions signals. The ‘stop in all directions’ was to allow pedestrians to cross. Later, a light was added. This was an early version of the modern traffic light.	pedestrians	A person who is walking breathing device	Something that help you to breath when there is smoke or gas around sewing machine	A machine which sews fabric together. Quickly and accurately inventor	A person who invented something or who invents things as an occupation

Timeline of events

4 th March 1877 Garrett Morgan is born	1885 First Car (Carl Benz)	1914 Garrett Morgan invents the breathing device	1932 Garrett Morgan invents the three-way traffic	1963 Garrett Morgan dies
--	-------------------------------	---	--	-----------------------------

