

Topic: Egypt

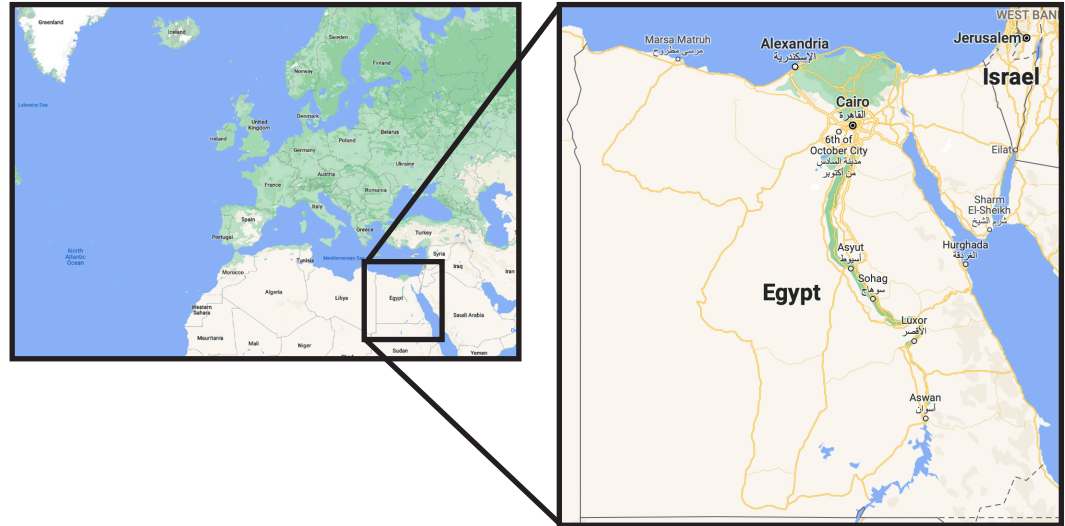

Year: 3

Term: Spring

Key Facts

Quick Facts
Flag
Language(s)	Arabic
Capital City	Cairo
Currency	Egyptian Pound
Religion(s)	Muslim (90%), Christian (10%)
Climate	Mainly hot and dry all year round

Locational Knowledge

Egypt is in the northeast part of Africa and southwest part of Asia.

The Mediterranean Sea is to the north of Egypt and the Red Sea to the east.

History

Egypt's history is incredibly impressive.

Ancient Egypt was one of the earliest and greatest civilisations ever.

Key Facts

Physical Geography

Egypt is mostly covered in dry, hot desert.

The River Nile in Egypt is the longest river in the world. This allowed people to settle there many years ago.

There are many different animals live there, including: cheetahs, hyenas, crocodiles, and cobras.

The Red Sea, to the east of Egypt, has many different types of fish and corals.

Human Geography

There are some large towns and cities in Egypt. Cairo, Luxor, and Alexandria are some of the biggest.

Egypt has 118 tombs and pyramids where its previous rulers (Pharaohs) are buried.

Vocabulary

Word	Explanation
ancient	something that is very old
civilisation	a large group of people who live together under the same rules and laws
climate	the type of weather in a particular area
coral	an invertebrate (has no spine) animal that lives in the sea
excavate	to remove carefully by scooping or digging out human geography	features of a landscape that are made by humans
Islam	one of the main religions in the world and the main religion in Egypt landscape	parts of the land that you can see physical geography	features of a landscape that are natural
settle	when a person or group of people stay in a place for a long time, usually because it is safe