INC WINNERS

Inspire - I will use every bit of time to learn.

R Apple - Isaac B -

R Pear - Darcie L -

1 LAVENDER - Karen S-A - You made a brilliant poster in history to present all the information we have learnt about castles this half term. Well done Karen!

1 ROSE - Joshua J - You are trying really hard with your writing. During provision time you are choosing to learn in the office area. You have written some nice sentences and you have learnt to write the number five. Well done Joshua. Keep up the good work!

2 WILLOW - Fahad A - You have worked hard on your spellings at home and have used them in your phonics and writing.

2 HAZEL - Amelia S - You have really focused on your learning throughout the week. Well done!

3 SPRUCE -

3 YEW - Maddison S - You have really applied yourself this week and used every bit of time to learn. Well done and keep up the good work, Maddison!

4 ASH - Alisha Y - You have been practising your reading in your own time.

4 BEECH - Kevin S - You have been practising your reading and handwriting.

5 CHESTNUT - Erica W - You were enthusiastic during your maths intervention the other day.

5 ELM - Lyla D - You have been committed to completing home learning to a high level.

We want to make you aware of a recent report involving a man who approached some younger players at Stanningley Rugby Club. The incident occurred on Wednesday evening, and while it did not involve any of our children, we feel it's important to share this information so that everyone can remain vigilant.

As a precaution, and in case you notice anything suspicious or have concerns to report, the authorities have provided the following crime reference number:

Crime Reference Number: WYP-20251016-1635

Please don't hesitate to contact the police if you see anything unusual or have relevant information.
