

History

Topic: Stephen Lawrence and Institutional Racism

| That in history there have not just been racist people, but whole countries with governments, saws and police who are racist. E.g. South Africa, Southern States in USA  April 1993 – The police identify four suspects but fail to collect proper evidence. July 1993 – Chaptes dropped against suspects  That when this happens, there have been civil rights wovements which have struggled to change these systems to make them more fair. Apartheid in South Africa was ended, schools in USA were desegregated and civil rights were guaranteed by law.  Perjudice Judging someone or having an idea about them before you actually know anything about them.  Perjudice, Judging someone or having an idea about them before you actually know anything about them.  Perjudice, Judging someone or having an idea about them before you actually know anything about them.  Perjudice, Judging someone or having an idea about them before you actually know anything about them.  Perjudice, Judging someone or having an idea about them before you actually know anything about them.  Perjudice, Judging someone or having an idea about them before you actually know anything | What I should already know  | Key Dates   | Vocabulary                                |  |
|--|---|---|---|--|
| April 1996 Private trial against suspects collapses and the not guilty verdict means they can't be tried again February 1999 The Macpherson report finds the police guilty of mistakes and "institutional racism" and makes 70 recommendations on changes to policing and wider public policy.  December 2000 The Metropolitan police pay the Lawrence family £320,000 in damages for their failings.  April 2005 The double jeopardy rule is scrapped for certain offences when there is new evidence.  January 2012 Two of the original suspects are found guilty of murder, 18 years after the event.  2013 The Black Lives Matter movement began on social media  Stephen Lawrence – Killed in the unprovoked racist attack  Doreen Lawrence – Mother of Stephen Lawrence  Neville Lawrence – Father of Stephen Lawrence  Neville Lawrence – Father of Stephen Lawrence  Neville Lawrence – Father of Stephen Lawrence  Nevil Roourt, Luke Knight, Gary  Dobson and Luke Knight – the gang responsible for the death of Stephen Lawrence  Neil Acourt, Luke Knight, Gary  Dobson and Luke Knight – the gang responsible for the death of Stephen Lawrence  Neil Acourt, Luke Knight, Gary  Dobson and Luke Knight – the gang responsible for the death of Stephen Lawrence  Neil Acourt, Luke Knight, Gary  Dobson and Luke Knight – the gang responsible for the death of Stephen Lawrence  Neil Acourt, Luke Knight, Gary  Dobson and Luke Knight – the gang responsible for the death of Stephen Lawrence in British society. It led to changes in the way police operate  A trime where a victim is targeted because of their race.  Not Agric 2000 the day agang of white men in a racist awa, and minority the cause of seet, pace, religion, sexuality, disability, gender, gender identity the VIX.  A big inquiry into Stephen's killing and the police investigation was helid, and in 1999 it found that the Metropolitan police were "institutionally racist". The murder of Stephen Lawrence highlighted for the way police operate  New The Court of the proper in the victor of the pace and making things  | but whole countries with governments, systems, laws and police who are racist. E.g. South Africa, Southern  | east London by a gang of young men in a racist attack.  April 1993 – The police identify four suspects but fail to collect proper   | Prejudice                                 | about them before you actually know  |
| Stephen Lawrence – Killed in the unprovoked racist attack  Doreen Lawrence – Mother of Stephen Lawrence  Neville Lawrence – Father of Stephen Lawrence  Neville Lawrence – Father of Stephen Lawrence  Duwayne Brooks – witnessed the attack on Stephen. He managed to run away unharmed  Neil Acourt, Luke Knight, Gary  Dobson and Luke Knight – the gang responsible for the death of Stephen Lawrence  George Zimmerman – Fatally  shot Trayvon Martin in Florida  Key Knowledge  Key Facts – Stephen Lawrence was a black teenager who was killed in 1993, when he was 18 years old.  On 22 April 1993, Stephen was killed by a gang of white men in a racist attack.  After Stephen's death Stephen Lawrence's family felt that not enough was being done to capture Stephen's killers. Many people believed the police treated Stephen's case differently because he was black - and that some officers acted in a racist way.  A big inquiry into Stephen's killing and the police investigation was held, and in 1999 it found that the Metropolitan police were 'institutionally racist'. The murder of Stephen Lawrence highlighted racism in British society. It led to changes in the way police operate  Justice  Belig fair and reasonable to people and making things right.  Double jeopardy  Court more than once for the same court more than once for the same curime.  Hate crime  A crime where a victim is targeted because of their membership of a certain social group e.g. race, religion, sexuality, disability, gender, gender identity  BAME  Black, Asian, and minority ethnic (used to refer to members of non-white communities in the UK).  Equality  People having the same rights, status and opportunities  | That when this happens, there have been civil rights movements which have struggled to change these systems to make them more fair. Apartheid in South Africa was ended, schools in USA were desegregated   | April 1996 Private trial against suspects collapses and the not guilty verdict means they can't be tried again  February 1999 The Macpherson report finds the police guilty of mistakes and "institutional racism" and makes 70 recommendations on changes to policing and wider public policy.  December 2000 The Metropolitan police pay the Lawrence family £320,000 in damages for their failings.  April 2005 The double jeopardy rule is scrapped for certain offences when there is new evidence.  January 2012 Two of the original suspects are found guilty of murder, 18 years after the event.   | Racism  Institutional Racism  Stereotypes | Treating a group unfairly and differently e.g. because of age, race or sex.  Prejudice, discrimination or hatred directed against a person or people because of their race.  When the laws of a country or the policies and practices of an organisation are set up in a way that treats people unfairly because of their race.  A generalised idea people might hold about a group of people often coming from culture and the media. |
| Stephen Lawrence – Killed in the unprovoked racist attack  Doreen Lawrence – Mother of Stephen Lawrence  Neville Lawrence – Father of Stephen Lawrence  Neville Lawrence – Father of Stephen Lawrence  New Jayre Brooks – witnessed the attack on Stephen. He managed to run away unharmed  Neil Acourt, Luke Knight, Gary  Dobson and Luke Knight – the gang responsible for the death of Stephen Lawrence  George Zimmerman – Fatally  shot Trayvon Martin in Florida  Key Facts – Stephen Lawrence was a black teenager who was killed in 1993, when he was 18 years old.  On 22 April 1993, Stephen was killed by a gang of white men in a racist attack.  After Stephen's death Stephen Lawrence's family felt that not enough was being done to capture Stephen's killers. Many people believed the police treated Stephen's case differently because he was black - and that some officers acted in a racist way.  A big inquiry into Stephen's killing and the police investigation was held, and in 1999 it found that the Metropolitan police were 'institutionally racist'. The murder of Stephen Lawrence highlighted racism in British society. It led to changes in the way police operate  Key Facts – Stephen Lawrence was a black teenager who was killed in 1993, when he was 18 years old.  On 22 April 1993, Stephen was killed by a gang of white men in a racist attack.  After Stephen's death Stephen Lawrence's family felt that not enough was being done to capture Stephen's killers. Many people believed the police investigation was held, and in 1999 it found that the Metropolitan police were 'institutionally racist'. The murder of Stephen Lawrence highlighted racism in British society. It led to changes in the way police operate  Double  A rule that stops people being tried in a court more than once for the same court more tha | Significant Individuals   |    | Justice                                   |  |
|  | Stephen Lawrence – Killed in the unprovoked racist attack  Doreen Lawrence – Mother of Stephen Lawrence  Neville Lawrence – Father of Stephen Lawrence  Duwayne Brooks – witnessed the attack on Stephen.  He managed to run away unharmed  Neil Acourt, Luke Knight, Gary  Dobson and Luke Knight – the gang responsible for the death of Stephen Lawrence  George Zimmerman – Fatally | Key Facts - Stephen Lawrence was a black teenager who was killed in 1993, when he was 18 years old. On 22 April 1993, Stephen was killed by a gang of white men in a racist attack. After Stephen's death Stephen Lawrence's family felt that not enough was being done to capture Stephen's killers. Many people believed the police treated Stephen's case differently because he was black - and that some officers acted in a racist way. A big inquiry into Stephen's killing and the police investigation was held, and in 1999 it found that the Metropolitan police were 'institutionally racist'. The murder of Stephen Lawrence highlighted | jeopardy  Hate crime  BAME                | A rule that stops people being tried in a court more than once for the same crime.  A crime where a victim is targeted because of their membership of a certain social group e.g. race, religion, sexuality, disability, gender, gender identity  Black, Asian, and minority ethnic (used to refer to members of non-white communities in the UK).  People having the same rights, status  |

April 93

S L was stabbed

April 93

Police id 4 suspects

July 93

Charges dropped

April 96

Private trial

Feb 99

Police guilty of mistakes

Dec 2000

Police pay family

April 2005

Double jeopardy rule scrapped

Jan 2012

2 suspects guilty of murder

2013 -

Black lives Matter movement